Europan 8 is an open competition for European and Russian architects under the age of 40. Participants can choose from 75 sites in all of Europe.

Europan Norway provides sites in Bergen, Hamar, Kirkenes, Kristiansand and Stavanger in co-operation with communes, developers and state housing development. Europen Norway works together with European Cyprus, which provides a site in the city of Larnaca.

The competition addresses the combination of urban and architectural issues. For each site a first and second prize, of €12000 and €6000 respectively, will be rewarded. The winners will be granted a continued commission and the opportunity to realise their projects.

Members of the Norwegian jury are amongst others Bjarke Ingels (Denmark) and Juan Herreros (Spain).

Competition period: 7th of March – 26th of September 2005
