JUNGE NORWEGISCHE KUNST UND ARCHITEKTUR IN BERLIN

PRESS RELEASE 30.03.2005

PER CHRISTIAN BROWN:
REVERIES OF ENDLESSNESS

08.04.-30.04. 2005

PROJEKT 0047 is proud to present the exhibition "Reveries of Endlessness" by Per Christian Brown.

Brown works mainly with photography and is known for his staged photos with a mysterious, seductive atmosphere, balancing on the border between documentary and fiction. This exhibition presents new photos as well as a new video work, where the dichotomy of baroque painting is the source of inspiration. In the triptych "Snow and Fire", Brown creates theatrical effects between the elements of darkness and light, passion and pain, dream and reality.

Per Christian Brown, born 1976 in Stavanger, Norway, lives and works in Berlin. A graduate of The National Academy of Fine Art in Oslo, his works have been exhibited at several national and international shows. He is represented in the art collections of e.g. The Norwegian Board of Culture, Statoil and Gasco. This is his first show in Germany.

The exhibition is part of the biannual art event in Berlin; Kunst Mitte Nord Open Weekend.
